15 GODINA SALONA STRIPA

Međunarodni salon stripa je festival devete umetnosti kojeg, od svog osnivanja 2003. godine, organizuje i vodi Srećna galerija Studentskog kulturnog centra Beograd kao svoj redovni redakcijski program. Ovaj festival je manifestacija neprofitnog karaktera i predstavlja najmasovniji i najsvеobuhvatniji strip projekat u Srbiji, i jednu od najznačajnijih smotri devete umetnosti u regionu.

Nakon niza pokušaja da strip, kao jedna od najplodonosnijih umetničkih disciplina u srpskoj kulturi, zaživi na zvaničnoj likovnoj i umetničkoj sceni, Studentski kulturni centar je, kao jedan od prvih aktera u toj inicijativi, uspeo da u svoj redovni godišnji program uvede sve pojavnе oblike izražavanja devete umetnosti kao jednu od svojih strategijskih programskih ideja.

Zarad podsećanja, napominjemo da je još 1977. godine, dakle tačno pre 40 godina, u SKC-u postavljena i održana prva profesionalna izložba stripa pod naslovom Fantastika - strip - društvo u konцепцији Ljubomira Kljakića sa dve obimne teorijske studije u katalogu izložbe – samog autora Ljubomira Kljakića i Ješe Denegrija.

Ako je SKC od svog osnivanja pa u svakoj deceniji prošlog veka bio, u svetskim okvirima, relevantno mesto savremene umetnosti, posebno alternativnih oblika umetničkog izražavanja, konceptualne i rokenrola, sigurno je i u protekljoj jednoj i po deceniji novoga veka na autentičan način, i opet na svetskom nivou, obeležio domaću umetničku scenu programom devete umetnosti.

U najboljoj tradiciji svojih blistavih istorijskih istaknutava i u precizno predviđenom programskom prostoru se već 15 godina, sa izuzetnim uspesima, odvija SKC-ov Salon stripa – veliki međunarodni festival, konceptijski zasnovan na takmičenju po međunarodnom konkursu autora svih uzrasta iz svih zemalja sveta; gostovanju najrelevantnijih svetskih strip autora; i revalorizaciji domaćeg strip stvaralaštva od njegovog početka do danas; afirmaciji domaćeg strip izdavaštva; afirmaciji mladih autora; popularizaciji stripa i srodnih izraza poput animiranog filma i ilustracije.

Potencirajući artistički karakter stripa i konцепцијu predstavljanja stripova kao ostvarenja likovne umetnosti u galerijskim prostorima, jedinstvenost ovog festivala se ogleda i u tome što, kroz izložbe i nagrade za inovativnost u stripu, publici prezentuje i radove posebne likovne poetike i na taj način razbija stereotipe o ovom umetničkom mediju.

U proteklih petnaest godina na Međunarodnom salonu stripa takmičilo se oko 2000 strip autora iz 57 zemalja sveta. Od njih oko 700 u kategoriji takmičara do 15 godina starosti, a u revijalnom delu programa gostovali su, kako najeminentniji svetski autori, tako i pioniri srpskog stripa kao laureati Specijalnog priznanja Salona za životno delo i doprinos srpskom stripu.

U naporima da se postigne potreban nivo kvaliteta programa, pripremanje svakog pojedinačnog festivalskog izdanja iziskivalo je ogroman rad i velika ulaganja.

Da bi se Salon održao kao manifestacija međunarodnog reñomea, uprava SKC-a, na čelu sa direktorom Slavoljubom Veselinovićem, u ovaj festival je počela da ulaže značajna infrastrukturna i finansijska sredstva, uspevši ne samo da održi već i da unapredi festival, a sve u želji da, na međunarodnom nivou, na jednom mestu sabere neoporne kvalitete stripa, i kroz ovakav dogadjaj, devetu umetnost udostoji elitističkog nivoa i zvanja, što ona sama po sebi i zaslужuje.

Milosav Pješić, urednik Salona stripa

15 YEARS OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMICS FESTIVAL

International comics festival is the festival of the ninth art, organized and led since its beginnings in 2003 by the Happy Gallery of Student Cultural Center (SKC) Belgrade, as a part of its regular program. The festival is a non-profit event; it represents the largest and the most comprehensive comics project in Serbia and one of the most important meetings in the field of the ninth art in the region.

After a series of attempts to revitalize the comics, one of the most prolific disciplines in the Serbian culture on the official artistic and aesthetic scene, the Student Cultural Center, as one of the primary participants in this initiative, managed to introduce into its regular annual program all manifest expression forms of the ninth art, as one of its strategic ideas.

As a remainder, back in 1977, exactly 40 years ago, the first professional exhibition of comics in Serbia was held in the SKC under the title Fiction – Comics – Society. It was conceptually created by Ljubomir Kljakić, and accompanied by two voluminous theoretical studies in the catalog of the exhibition, written by the author himself and Jesa Denegri.

Since its founding, and in every decade of the last century, the SKC was indeed a relevant place for contemporary art, especially alternative forms of artistic expression, conceptual art and rock'n'roll. During the past decade and a half of our century, its activities were in an authentic way, and again on the international level, marked with its program of the ninth art.

In the best tradition of its brilliant historical experiences and in precisely provided program space, for the past 15 years the International Comics Festival of the SKC is being held with exceptional successes. It is conceptually based on the international competition of authors of all ages from all countries of the world, presence of the most relevant comics artists worldwide, re-evaluation of domestic comics scene from its beginnings to the present, affirmation of the domestic comics publishing and young artists, and popularization of comics and related expressions, such as animated film and illustrations.

By emphasizing the artistic character of comics and the concept of presenting comics as an example of fine arts in gallery spaces, the uniqueness of this festival is also reflected in the presentation of comics of special artistic poetry to the audience, through exhibitions and awards for inventiveness, thus breaking stereotypes about this art medium.

In the past fifteen years around 2000 authors from 57 countries worldwide took part in the Festival competition. Among them, more than 700 participants were in the "15 years of age or below" category. In the non-competitive part of the program guests of the festival were most distinguished artists worldwide, as well as winners of the Special award for the lifetime achievement and contribution to the Serbian comics scene.

In an effort to achieve the required level of quality of the programs, preparation of each edition of the festival required hard work and huge investments.

Thus, in order to maintain the festival as an event of international importance, the management of the SKC, led by director Slavoljub Veselinović, began to invest significant infrastructural and financial resources in the festival, succeeding not only to maintain it, but also to further advance it, while striving to gather at one place, and at the international level, the unquestionable qualities of the comics, and through this event, to give the ninth art the elitist level and vocation, which it deserves per se.

Milosav Pješić, editor of the International comics festival

REČ ŽIRIJA

Iznad svega, Međunarodni salon stripa je prilika da se okupe ljudi koji na različite načine učestvuju u čaroliji zvanoj strip. Tokom četvorodnevnog druženja u vidu tribina, predavanja, i strip radionica, ova relativno mlada, ali dokazano vredna stvaralačka disciplina biće povod za još jedan praznik umetnosti.

A ni ove godine broj učesnika nije zaostajao za prethodnim Salonima, pa je tako njih 272 (112 stranih i 160 domaćih) poslalo na konkurs 251 rad iz 32 zemlje širom sveta, pri čemu po prvi put imamo učesnike iz Meksika i sa Filipina. Sto se tiče tematike koju su autori obrađivali, najviše je bilo stripova inspirisanih istorijskim temama i ljudskim mukama. Talenta je bilo u izobilju, počev od najmladih učesnika koji su svojim maštovitim i zrelim izrazima pokazali da itekako ima budućih majstora među njima, pa preko starijih autora koji tek оформљују svoj stil, do onih koji su uveliko etabirani strip umetnici.

Dragana Stojiljković

Dostignuća jednog umetnika ne obezvreduju napore njegovih kolega na način na koji se to dešava u sportu. Autori nisu medusobni konkurenti već saborci u zajedničkoj borbi za lepotu. U toj borbi nema poraženih, ni pobednika, već samo dobitnika. A dobitnici su svi oni koji lepotu stvaraju, kao i svi mi koji u njihovim delima uživamo.

A WORD FROM THE JURY

This festival above all presents an opportunity for gathering of the people that participate in various ways in the magic called the comics art. During the four-day socialization in the forms of panels, lectures and workshops, this relatively young, but worthwhile and creative discipline will be a cause for another holiday of art.

And this year, the number of participants at the contest followed the trends of the previous years. Therefore, 272 participants (112 from abroad and 160 from Serbia) sent 251 entries in total, from 32 countries, to the contest. For the first time, participants from Mexico and the Philipines appeared. Regarding the topics the authors dealt with, there were many comics inspired by historical themes and human sufferings. Also, there were many talented participants, starting with the youngest ones who, with their imaginative and mature expressions showed there are some future masters among them, via somewhat older authors who are in the process of creation of their own style, up to those who are established artists.

Dragana Stojiljković

The achievements of an artist do not devalue the efforts of his colleagues in a way it happens in sports. The authors are not competing with each other, but in the joint struggle for beauty. There are no losers, or champions in the fight; all are the winners. Not only those who create beauty, but also all of us who enjoy their works.

GRAND PRIX OF THE FESTIVAL

DARKO MACAN

Darko Macan (Zagreb, 1966) je u svojih gotovo trideset godina profesionalne karijere objavio ukupno šezdesetak naslova. Radio je za izdavače u Hrvatskoj, Srbiji, Sloveniji, Nemačkoj, Danskoj, Sjedinjenim Državama i Francuskoj. Nagradiven je za stripove, romane za decu i naučnofantastične priče.

Darko Macan (Zagreb, 1966) published around sixty titles during his almost three decade long professional career. He worked for publishers in Croatia, Serbia, Slovenia, Germany, Denmark, USA and France. His comics, novels for children and SF stories were awarded numerous times.

FRAN STRUKAN

Nesudjeni grafičar, svoj ozbiljni stripovski put počinje na CRŠ-u 2008. godine gde dobija nagradu Mladi lav. Potom radi storibord za marketinške agencije, razne ilustracije te kratke stripove po vlasitom scenariju, do sada uglavnom neobjavljene. Bio je kolorista, jedne (za sada jedine) sveske samoizdatog američkog stripa Food for thought, kao i nekoliko naslovnica za američku Dynamite Ent. koje crta Goran Sudžuka. Po scenariju Krešimira Biuka crta strip Prava Misija objavljen u zagrebačkom fanzinu Endem, a koji tušira Sudžuka. Za britanski Futurequake je ilustrovan dva kratka stripa: Be careful what you wish for i Jungalow. Takođe je tuširao dve epizode Mistera Mačka Roberta Solanovića u albumu Postanak, po scenariju Darka Macana.

An unfulfilled graphic designer, Fran Strukan entered the world of comics at CRŠ festival in Zagreb, in 2008 when he received the Young Lion Award. He worked on storyboard for various marketing agencies, and he did many illustrations and short comics that mostly remained unpublished. He was a colorist of one (and for now the only) issue of a self-published American comics Food for thought, as well as several covers for USA based Dynamite Ent., drawn by Goran Sudžuka. His next comics was Prava Misija ("The Real Mission") scripted by Krešimir Biuk, inked by Sudžuka, and published in fanzine Endem from Zagreb. He also illustrated two short comics Be careful what you want for and Jungalow for British Futurequake, and worked as an inker on two episodes of Mister Mačak ("Mr. Cat") by Robert Solanović in the album titled Postanak ("Origin"), and scripted by Darko Macan.

"The Surprising Adventures of Baron Münchhausen"

*A year or two after, being with a party in the same forest,
I beheld a noble stag with a fine full grown cherrytree above ten feet high between his antlers. I immediately recollect'd my former adventure, looked upon him as my property, and brought him to the ground by one shot, which at once gave me the haunch and cherry-sauce; for the tree was covered with the richest fruit, the like I had never tasted before.*

This second attempt succeeded; all the balls took effect, and tore one side open, and brought it down. Judge my surprise when a most elegant gilt car, with a man in it, and part of a sheep which seemed to have been roasted, fell within two yards of me.

At few miles from Constantinople I perceived a very slight, thin man running straight towards us with great rapidity, although he had a leaden weight of at least fifty pounds attached to each foot. Seized with astonishment, I called out to him: 'Where are you going, friend, so fast, and why are you hindered by these weights at your ankles?'

The same afternoon I met two more men, equally wonderful. The first of these was a great country lad, whom we found lying on the ground with his ear to the turf.

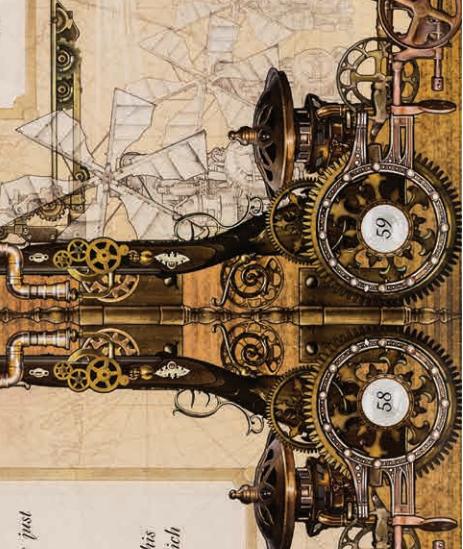

"Oh," said he, "I am trying a new gun, which I have just bought. There was a sparow on the spire of

Straisbury Cathedral which

I have just shot. It is a fine weapon."

These who know my passion for sport will not be surprised to hear that I threw myself into the arms of this excellent shot and implored him to enter my service, to which he gave a ready assent.

"I came to cut down some wood for building," he replied; "But I have left my hatchet at home, so I am trying to get the trees without it as well as I can."

The listener lay down with his ear to the ground and announced to my consternation, that my runner was miles away and evidently fast asleep, for he heard him snoring. My brave shower quickly ran up a lofty terrace and cried out: It is quite late. The lazy fellow is lying under an oak near Belgrade, fast asleep with the bottle by his side. Wait a moment, and I'll make him up.

We took aim immediately, and discharged his gun full at the oak-tree. A shower of acorns, leaves, and twigs fell on the sleeper, who naturally sprang up, seized the bottle, and arrived with it and an autograph letter from Queen Maria Theresa in the Sultan's apartment, at fifty-nine and a half minutes past three!

NIKOLA MASLOVARA - MASLI

Rođen je 1946. godine u Odžacima. U Novom Sadu završava Višu pedagošku školu, likovni smer. Od 1979. godine živi u Gornjem Milanovcu, gde radi kao likovni urednik u redakciji stripa izdavačke kuće Dečje Novine. Sa kolegama M. Stevanovićem i M. Petkovićem osniva izdavačku kuću Den art i izdaje autorske listove za decu Dečji odmor i Zvuk. Od 2007. godine vodi radionicu Mala škola animacije u Kraljevačkoj biblioteci Stefan Prvovenčani.

Karikature objavljuje od 1969. godine a prvi strip mu je objavljen 1971. u ediciji Kuriri. Osam godina kasnije, sa Milanom Bukovcem i humoristom Vojislavom Ratkovićem osniva grupu FONS. Stvorio je čitav niz autorskih stripova: Marka Kraljevića, Detektiva Lakonogića, Fijukse, Debli Krkojetu, Tupavzana i dr. Jedno vreme je intenzivno crtao i licencne stripove Pink Pantera, Toma i Džerija, Mapet bebe, Mačka Feliksa, Velikog Bleka. Autor je scenarija za strip Miki Maus i Baš Čelik koga je realizovao Zdravko Zupan. Tokom 1988. član je autorske grupe - Slaviša Ćirović, Brana Nikolić i Zdravko Zupan sa kojima radi na domaćem serijalu Yupi-stars.

Treću nagradu za strip Homo anticus dobija 1979. godine u Francuskoj. Takođe je dobitnik više nagrada za karikaturu: Ikar (1973), prva nagrada lista Borba (1979), prva nagrada na festivalu džez karikature u Beogradu (1997), Zlatna kaciga, Kruševac (2007).

He was born in 1946 in the town of Odžaci. He graduated from the College of Pedagogy in Novi Sad, Department of Arts. Since 1979, he lives in Gornji Milanovac, where he worked as art director in the comics department of Dečje Novine publishing. Together with his colleagues M. Stevanović and M. Petković, he founded Den Art publishing house, which publishes two magazines for children – Dečiji odmor and Zvuk. Since 2007, he leads workshop titled Little school of animation in a public library in Kraljevo.

He published his first caricatures in 1969, while his first comics appeared two years later in the Kuriri edition. Eight years later he created the FONS group, together with Milan Bukovac and humorist Vojislav Ratković. He created many comics: The Prince Marko, Detective Easygoing, Fioux, Fat Croquejet, Stupidzan and many others. For some time, he worked intensively on licensed comics: Pink Panther, Tom & Jerry, Muppet Babies, Felix the Cat and Il Grande Black. He also scripted the album Mickey Mouse and the Head of Steel, drawn by Zdravko Zupan. During 1988, together with Slaviša Ćirović, Brana Nikolić and Zupan, he became a member of the famous quartet that worked on the domestic series Yupi-stars.

In France, he won the third prize for his comic Homo anticus in 1979. He also won several awards for caricature: Icarus (1973), gran prix of Borba newspaper (1979), first award at the festival of jazz caricature in Belgrade (1997) and the Golden Helmet in Kruševac (2007).

KOMIKO, NOVI SAD

Izдавачka kuća Komiko osnovana je 2009. godine u Novom Sadu, sa ciljem objavljivanja i bolje prezentacije prvenstveno domaćih autora i njihovih ostvarenja, kako kroz klasične (edicija Zlatno doba - vremeplov kroz svet srpskog stripa), tako i kroz savremene edicije (u okviru biblioteke Moderni srpski strip). Pored toga, Komiko se jasno pozicionira i kao izdavač savremenih grafičkih romana iz pera velikana poput Žaka Tardiјa, Danijela Klauza, Didiјea Komesa, Barua, ili Macukelija i najcenjenijih autora nove generacije: Nikole de Kresija, Sajmona Biziљa, Dipija, Krejga Tompsona, Manuelea Fiora, Frederika Petersa, Rajnharda Klajsta. Ne zapostavljajući ni alternativniji autorski izraz i sasvim drugaćiju, rubnu estetiku, pokrenuli smo i biblioteku Stripovi Roberta Kramba posvećenu rodonačelniku američkog undergraunda i objavili stripove Gilberta Šeltona, norveškog samotnjaka Jasona i skandinavsku senzaciju Rokija Martina Kelermana. Dužnu pažnju posvetili smo i klasicima kao što su Popaj E. K. Sigara, Srednjovekovni zamak Harolda Foster-a i najpoznatiji britanski strip svih vremena - Sudija Dred. U budućnosti planiramo da proširimo svoj izdavački program publikovanjem velikih majstora Himenesa i Valentina Sešera.

Komiko publishing house was founded in 2009 in Novi Sad, with an aim to publish and to present primarily domestic comics artists and their works. Both classic (edition The Golden Age: A Time travel through the world of the Serbian comics) and contemporary authors (edition The contemporary Serbian comics) are represented. Besides, Komiko positioned itself as a publisher of modern graphic novels made by worldwide known artists such as Jacques Tardi, Daniel Clowes, Didier Comès, Baru and Mazzucchelli; also those created by the most renowned authors of the younger generation, including Nicholas de Crécy, Simon Bisly, Gipi, Craig Thompson, Manuele Fior, Frederick Peters and Reinhard Kleist. The alternative comics scene is not neglected, and quite different edge aesthetics is represented by the edition The Comics of Robert Crumb, dedicated to the founder of the American underground comics, as well as by works of Gilbert Shelton, Norwegian lone wolf Jason and Scandinavian sensation Rocky by Martin Kellerman. Due attention is dedicated to the classics such as Popeye by E. C. Segar, The Medieval Castle by Harold Foster and the most renowned British comics Judge Dredd. In the future, our intention is to expand our publishing activities through the editions of the great masters of art Juan Jimenez and Valentin Sécher.

Izдавачka kuća Darkwood sa velikim uspehom revitalizuje domaće strip-izdavaštvo i što je nakon „godina koje su pojeli skakavci“ najznačajnije, mlade generacije čitalaca upoznaje sa stripom kao medijem. Tokom prethodnih sedam godina domaćoj čitalačkoj publici predstavljene su sve najvažnije škole stripa, počev od italijanskog Bonelija, preko francusko-belgijske (BD) produkcije, američkih superherojskih stripova i grafičkih romana, pa do japanskih mangi. Darkwood objavljuje i stripove domaćih autora, kako reprint izdanja poznatih serijala, tako i dosad manje afirmisane scenariste i crtače. Svaka od pomenutih strip-škola nosi svoje specifičnosti, pa su tako različiti naslovi adekvatno tretirani i u izdavačkom smislu. Oformljeno je desetak edicija, prilagođenih objavljenim naslovima, koje se odlikuju specifičnom opremom – lepezom različitih uveza, formata i vrsta papira. Posebno je značajno da je naprima Darkwooda najstariji domaći strip - magazin Stripoteka nastavio redovno da izlazi, pronašavši ravnotežu između zadržavanja vernalih čitalaca i privlačenja novih. Darkwood je dosad objavio preko četiri stotine naslova! Ostvarena je saradnja sa svim najvećim svetskim izdavačkim kućama (Marvel, DC, Dark Horse, Panini, Bonelli, Casterman, Shueisha, Shogakukan, Kodansha...). Kao rezultat svega pomenutog u poslednjih nekoliko godina situacija na domaćoj strip-sceni značajno se poboljšala. Ova vrsta literature najzad je dobila tretman kakav prilići jednoj umetnosti, dok je istovremeno zadržala svežinu kojom je oduvek očaravala ljubitelje popularne kulture.

DARKWOOD, BEOGRAD

With great success, Darkwood publishing house revitalizes domestic comics publishing and what is even more important, after the “years eaten by locusts”, it successfully introduces the comics as a medium to the younger generation of readers. Over the past seven years, all of the most important schools of comics have been brought to the local readers, from Italian Bonelli, via French-Belgian (BD) production, American superhero comics and graphic novels, to Japanese manga editions. Darkwood also publishes comics of domestic authors, reprints of the earlier well-known series, as well as works of lesser-known script-writers and artists. Each of the aforementioned schools of comics has been adequately treated in the publishing activities. There are dozens of editions adapted to the published titles, distinguished by the specific look and characterized by a variety of different bindings, formats and types of paper. It is especially important that due to the efforts of Darkwood the oldest domestic comics magazine Stripoteka continued its existence, simultaneously finding the balance between keeping the old faithful readers and attracting the new ones. Darkwood has released over four hundred titles so far! Collaboration with all of the world's largest publishers has been established, including Marvel, DC, Dark Horse, Panini, Bonelli, Casterman, Shueisha, Shogakukan and Kodansha. As a result of everything above-mentioned, in the last several years the situation on the domestic comic scene improved significantly. At last, this kind of literature received the treatment it deserves, while at the same time retaining the freshness that has always fascinated the fans of popular culture.

GOSTI SALONA - GUESTS OF THE FESTIVAL

GIPI

Dipi (umetničko ime Đanalfonsa Pačinotija) je jedan od najcenjenijih italijanskih crtača svih vremena. Rođen je u Pizi 1963.

godine. Njegovi stripovi prevedeni su na nekoliko jezika i dobijali su brojne nagrade u Italiji i inostranstvu među kojima Gran Duniđi, Mikeluci, Margujat, Gošinjev i druge.

Tokom 1994. godine, dok je radio kao ilustrator u izdavaštву i međunarodnoj štampi, Dipi je započeo da objavljuje kratke priče. Njegova grafička novela Notes pour une histoire de guerre ("Beleške za jednu ratnu priču"), koja je izашla 2005. u Francuskoj, a potom u Italiji i SAD, donela mu je Gošinjevu nagradu za najbolji scenario i najbolji album na prestižnom strip festivalu u Angulemu 2006. godine, što je njegovu karijeru uzzdiglo na međunarodni nivo. Dipi je i tvorac stripa Gli Innocenti ("Nevini") za Fantagrafiksovou Ignac seriju. Ovaj rad doneo mu je Ajznerovu nagradu, kao i nominaciju za nagradu Maks & Moric (2006).

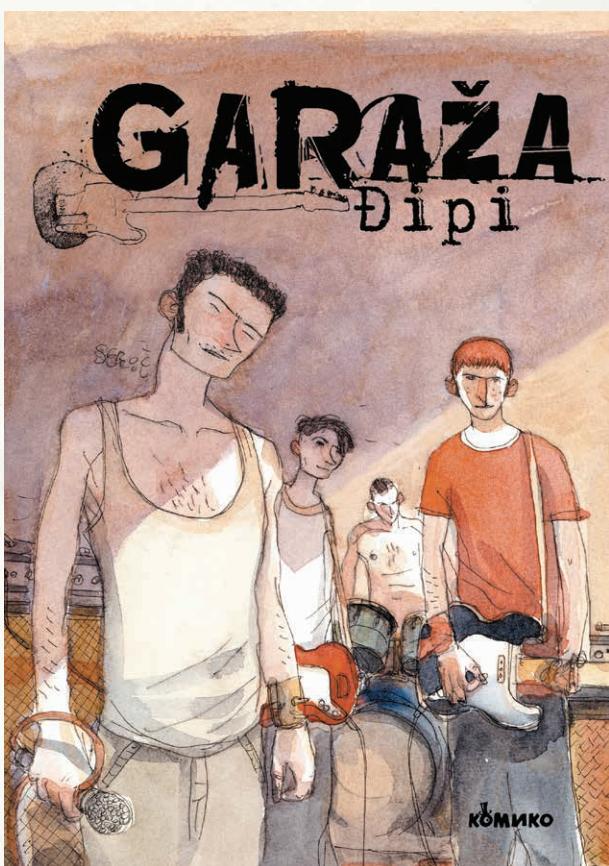

Nakon rada na stvaranju i režiranju više nezavisnih kratkometražnih filmova, Dipi je 2011. izbacio svoj prvi dugometražni film L'ultimo terrestre ("Poslednji čovek na Zemlji"), koji je producirala kompanija Fandango. Film je premijerno prikazan na 68. međunarodnom filmskom festivalu u Veneciji.

Njegova grafička novela Unastoria ("Neka priča") (Coconino Press, 2013) postala je prva svoje vrste u Italiji koja je ikada nominovana za neku književnu nagradu. Njen ulazak u nujuži izbor za nagradu Strega doveo je do zapaljivih diskusija na nacionalnim medijima oko književne vrednosti stripa. Ova novela je nekoliko meseci bila bestseler.

Dipi je već dugo vremena zagrženi gejmer i dizajner igara. Tokom 2015. godine, napravio je kartašku igru Bruti koja je postala veoma popularna u Italiji, a počev od kraja 2016, preko CMON games distribuirana je i u Sjedinjenim Američkim Državama.

Krajem oktobra 2016. godine, objavio je još jednu grafičku novelu – La Terra dei Figli ("Zemlja sinova") koja je doživela odličan prijem kod kritike.

Trenutno živi sa svojom suprugom u Rimu.

Gipi (the pseudonym of Gian-Alfonso Pacinotti) is one of the most renowned Italian cartoonists of all time. He was born in Pisa in 1963. His comics have been translated into several languages and have been awarded numerous prizes in Italy and abroad, including the Gran Guinigi, Micheluzzi, Margouillat and Goscinny Awards.

In 1994 he began publishing short stories on satirical Italian magazines while working as an illustrator for the publishing industry and international press. His graphic novel Notes pour une histoire de guerre ("Notes for a War Story") came out in France in 2005, and then was published in Italy and in the United States, winning the Goscinny Prize for Best Script and Best Album at the prestigious Festival International de la bande dessinée d'Angoulême in 2006, which further consecrated his work at the international level. Gipi created Gli Innocenti ("The Innocents") for the Ignatz Series and this work earned him an Eisner Award nomination and a Max & Moritz Prize (2006).

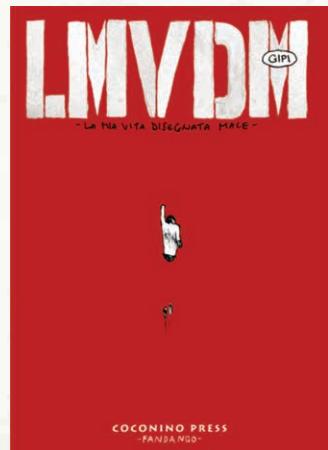

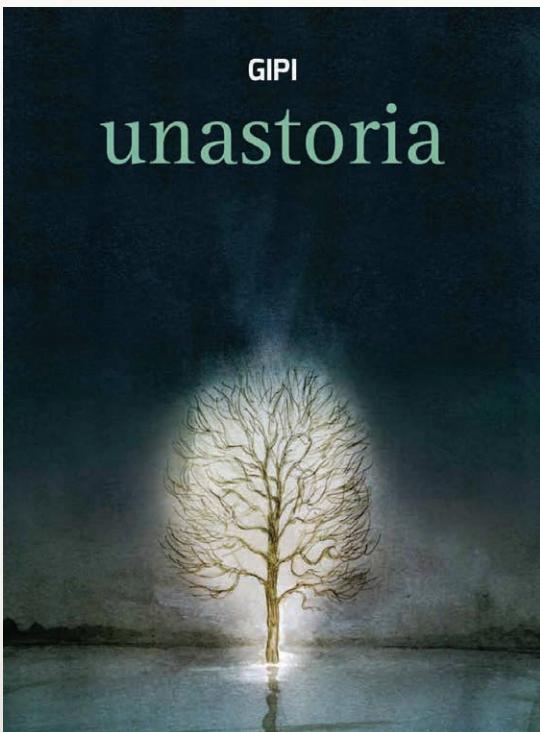

After creating and directing various independent short films, in 2011 Gipi released his debut feature-length movie L'ultimo terrestre ("The Last Man on Earth"), produced by Fandango, and premiered at the 68th Venice International Film Festival.

His most recent graphic novel, Unastoria ("Astory") (Coconino Press, 2013), became the first comic book in Italy ever to be nominated for a major literary prize. Being shortlisted for the Strega Prize sparked an incendiary debate in the national media about the literary value of comics. Unastoria was also a bestseller for several months.

Gipi has long been an avid gamer and game designer. In 2015, he invented and illustrated a card game named Bruti, which became very popular in Italy and was published and distributed in the U.S. during the fall of 2016 by CMON Games.

His latest graphic novel La Terra dei Figli ("The Land of the Sons") was published to much critical acclaim at the end of October 2016.

Currently, Gipi lives in Rome with his wife.

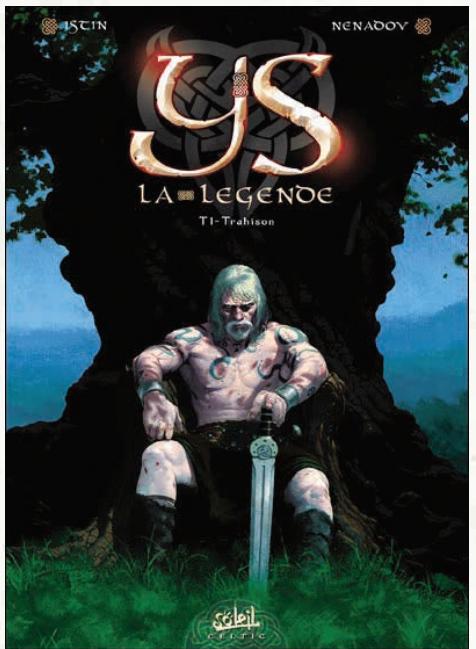

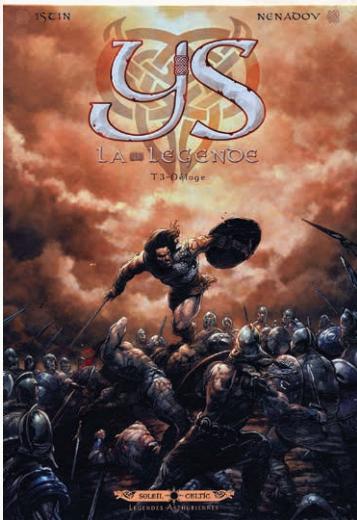

DEJAN NENADOV

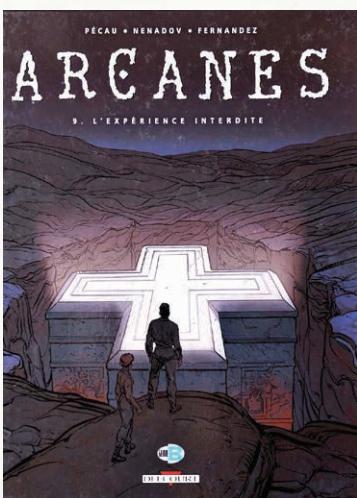

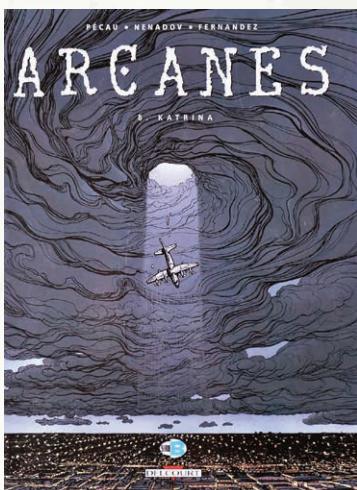

Dejan Nenadov je rođen 1966. godine u Novom Sadu. Studirao je u Obrazovnom Centru za Dizajn, "Bogdan Šuput" u Novom Sadu, a zatim na Akademiji umetnosti u istom gradu, na Odseku za slikarstvo. Posle diplomiranja upisao je specijalizaciju na slikarskom odseku Akademije lepih umetnosti u Osnu. Dugi niz godina je živeo u Amsterdamu.

Njegova naklonost za strip i likovnu umetnost uopšte ispoljila se veoma rano. Svoje prve stripove objavio je još kao srednjoškolac i to u najprestižnijim domaćim magazinima za strip toga vremena, poput Yu Strip magazina i Stripoteke. Neki od njih objavljeni su kasnije u inostranstvu. Bio je dobitnik mnogih značajnih nagrada, od onih na konkursima za mlade autore, pa do prestižne nagrade za najbolji savremeni strip magazina Vidici. Takođe je dobitnik plakete Zlatno Pero Beograd.

Sa albumom Elazar koji se sastoji od pet povezanih priča, kritičari su ga svrstali među najznačajnije domaće strip autore. Njegovi stripovi su okarakterisani kao "intelektualni spoj stripa i literature", što mu je donelo nagradu Zaharije Orfelin za doprinos u spajaju ova dva izražajna medija. Njegov ritmičan crtež, istovremeno razigran, ali i pun referenci iz kulture, čini njegov grafički izraz osobenim i snažnim.

Ubrzo posle napuštanja zemlje 1991. godine Nenadov prestaje da se aktivno bavi stripom i u narednih deceniju i po posvećuje se slikarstvu. Radu na stripu se vraća tek 2007. godine, na poziv da nastavi serijal Arcanes za francuskog izdavača Delkur. U narednih devet godina je uradio dvanaest knjiga u okviru četiri zasebna serijala. Tvrdi da ga je povratak staroj ljubavi osvežio i da ga još uvek veoma raduje.

expression both distinctive and powerful.

Shortly after leaving the country in 1991, he ceased to be actively engaged in comics, and in the next decade and a half he devoted his career to painting. He returned to the comics scene only in 2007, after receiving the invitation to continue the series Arcanes for French publisher Delcourt. In the past nine years he did twelve books in four separate series. He often claims that the return to his old love refreshed him and that he is still very happy to be active on the comics scene.

Dejan Nenadov was born in 1966, in Novi Sad, Serbia. He studied at the Educational Center for design, and afterwards at the Academy of Arts in his home city. After the graduation, he specialized at the Academy of Fine Arts in Oslo. For a long time he lived in Amsterdam.

His affection for the comic art, and art in general, was manifested very early. He published his first comics in high school and in the most prestigious domestic comics magazines, such as Yu Strip Magazine and Stripoteka. Some of them were later republished abroad. He won many important awards for young authors, but also the prestigious award for best contemporary comics, given by magazine Vidici. He was also the winner of the Golden Pen of Belgrade.

After the appearance of the album Elazar, consisted of five linked stories, critics included him among the most important domestic comics artists. His comics were characterized as an "intellectual compound of comics and literature", a fact that earned him Zaharije Orfelin award for his contribution in connecting these two expressive media. His rhythmic drawing, at the same time playful, but also full of references to culture, makes his graphic Roden 1972. godine u Francuskoj, Olivije Dobremel (Dobs) je studirao sociologiju i tada započeo da piše scenarije za RPG, video igrice i stripove. U vreme dok je još predavao kinematografiju, potpisao je svoje prve strip ugovore za neke biografije serijskih ubica i triler priče. Potom je od izdavačke kuće Solej dobio priliku da radi na nekoliko mini-serijala u domenu avanturističkog žanra, fantazije i horora (Loki, Alan Kvotermejn, Alamo, Mr. Hajd protiv Frankenštajna i Skotland Jard). Većina njih su prevedeni na italijanski, španski, nemački i engleski jezik.

DOBBS

Potom je napisao jednu celovitu priču za kuću Ankama, smeštenu u svet čuvene video igre Dofus. Učestvovao je i u nastanku velike kolekcije adaptiranih priča SF autora Stefana Vula. Nakon saradnje sa srpskim crtačem Darkom Perovićem na Alamu, pridružio se kolektivnoj srpsko-francuskoj publikaciji Linije fronta, zajedničkom izdanju Sistem Komiksa i Francuskog kulturnog centra u Beogradu.

Dobs je nedavno za Glenat počeo rad na zbirci adaptiranih priča Herberta Džordža Velsa koje uključuju Vremensku mašinu, Rat svetova, Nevidljivog čoveka i Ostrvo doktora Mora. Trenutno je pred njim novi izazov: pisanje knjige o njegovoj prvoj ljubavi – filmu.

Born in France in 1972, Olivier Dobremel (aka "Dobbs") started to write scripts for RPG, video games and comic books, while he was studying sociology. Back then, when he was a teacher of cinematography, he signed his first comics contracts for some biographies of serial killers and several thrillers. After that, he was provided by Soleil with opportunity to work on several mini-series in the fantasy & horror / adventure genres (Loki, Allan Quatermain, Alamo, Mr. Hyde vs. Frankenstein and Scotland Yard). Most of them were translated into Italian, Spanish, German and English.

Later, he wrote a one-shot story for Ankama set in the universe of famous video game Dofus. He also participated in the voluminous collection of adaptations of the stories written by Sci-Fi author Stefan Wul. After his collaboration with Serbian artist Darko Perović on Alamo, he joined the collective Serbian-French publication Frontlines, published by Belgrade based System Comics and the French Institute in Belgrade.

Recently, he began to work for Glénat on a collection of adaptations of H.G. Wells' novels: The Time Machine, The War of the Worlds, The Invisible Man and The Island of Doctor Moreau. He is now setting on a new challenge: to write a book about his first passion – cinema.

PULSKA STRIP ČITAONICA I PROMOCIJA ALBUMA MR. JOE

Strip Čitaonica Mrkli Mrak omogućuje posetiocima da se bliže upoznaju sa svetom stripa i pogledaju novije naslove zastupljene na domaćem i stranom tržištu. Tu možete da se upoznate sa raznim žanrovima i oblicima umetnosti koji se primenjuju u kreiranju stripa. Možete se informisati o tome koja strip izdanja visoko kotiraju na lestvicama kritičara i zašto je to tako, kao i dobiti uvid u ostale informacije iz sveta stripa koje bi mogle da vas zanimaju. Nema pozajmice i prodaje, ali nema ni članarine. Svi su dobrodošli. Cilj je stvoriti zajednicu zaljubljenika u strip umetnost i pružiti im mesto na kojem mogu razmjenjivati mišljenja, iskustva, ideje i savete.

Vibor i Vjeran Juhas većinu svog života proveli kao braća. Žive i rade u Puli, iako mnogima nije jasno zašto. Kažu da je strip njihova velika ljubav, jer se to tako mora. Strip album Mr. Joe je njihov prvi strip. Godina je 1890. Heinrich Šliman je nemački pionir arheologije. Nemačka posedeju kolonije u Africi. Radaju se Gruča Marks, Agata Kristi i H.P. Lovkraft. Verovatno i još neki ljudi. Te su činjenice istinite. No, ono što se događa u ovoj priči je istorija koju malo ko zna. Istorija koja je toliko neverovatna da odbijamo da priznamo da se dogodila. Istorija o kojoj se нико ne usuduje da govori. Zato je prenosimo u obliku stripa. A za Mr. Džoa ovo je samo još jedna pustolovina. Trenutak je da i vi upoznate tu prečutanu istoriju. Trenutak je da i vi upoznate Mr. Joea.

COMICS CLUB FROM PULA AND LAUNCH OF ALBUM MR. JOE

Comics Club Mrkli Mrak ("Pitch Darkness") allows visitors to familiarize themselves with the world of comics and to look at recent publications on the domestic and foreign markets. Here, you can get acquainted with the various genres and forms of art applied in the creation of comics.

You can find out which comics editions are highly ranked among the critics and why it is so, and you can get insight into other particulars about comics you might be interested in. There is no loan, and no sale option, but there is no membership fee either. Everyone is welcome. The goal is to create a community of fans of comic art, and to provide them with a place to exchange advice, thoughts, experiences and ideas.

Vibor and Vjeran Juhas spent most of their lives as brothers. They live and work in Pula, Croatia, although many do not understand why. They say that comics are their great love because that is how it must be. The album Mr. Joe is their first comics. The year is 1890. Heinrich Schliman is a German pioneer of archeology. Germany has colonies in Africa. Groucho Marx, Agatha Christie and H.P. Lovecraft were born in the same year. Probably some other people as well. These facts are true. However, what is happening in this story is a history that few people know about; a history so incredible that we refuse to admit it happened; a history no one dares to talk about. Therefore, it is transmitted in the form of comics. And for Mr. Joe, this is just another adventure. It is a moment for you to get to know this tacit history; a moment for you to meet Mr. Joe.

ISKRENI ANIMIRANI SVET ŠPELE ČADEŽ

Špela Čadež (1977, Slovenija) je nezavisna autorka i producentkinja animiranih filmova. Nakon završetka studija grafičkog dizajna u Ljubljani, nastavila je školovanje u Kelnu, na Akademiji za umetničke medije. Sa svoja prva dva studentska lutka-filma, Zasukanec (2004) i Lovesick (2007), animirana i producirana u Nemačkoj, pobrala je mnoge uspehe na međunarodnim festivalima u studentskoj konkurenциji. Od 2008. godine samostalno producira svoje filmove. Njen treći lutka-film Boles (2013) dobio je preko 50 nagrada i nominacija širom sveta. Špelino najnovije ostvarenje, kolažni animirani film Nočna ptica (2016), već je prikazivan na najeminentnijim festivalima animiranog filma, odakle je u Ljubljani doneo nekoliko nagrada. U Srbiji će biti premijerno prikazan na našem festivalu!

Špelini filmovi su puni emocijnog naboja koji nastaje iz duhovito i nadahnuto ispričanih priča, isprepletanih stvarnošću i fantazijom. Uverljive atmosfere iz njenih kratkih filmova rezultat su detaljno izrađenih lutaka, scenografije, odličnog osvetljenja, dobrog taiminga i montaže. Često snimljene u prvom planu, Špeline fragilne i sanjalačke lutke očaravaju publiku krupnim očima, dugim prstima i mesečarskim pokretima. Autorka bira teme bliske sopstvenom senzibilitetu (ljubav, stvaralački proces, usamljenost, maštanje) koje su ujedno i izazov u procesu sinteze formalnih elemenata i narativne potke. Uspesima svojih filmova u svetu izborila se i za povoljniji status animacije, jedne posve usamljeničke i marginalizovane umetnosti, u rodnoj Sloveniji. Dok čitate i slušate njene intervjuje, shvatiate da su ključne reči koje ova nasmejana animatorka koristi kad govori o profesiji animatora: iskrenost, ljubav prema poslu, istražnost, priča, izazov. Dobrodošli u iskreni animirani svet Špeli Čadež!

HONEST(LY) ANIMATED WORLD OF ŠPELA ČADEŽ

Špela Čadež (1977, Slovenia) is an independent director and producer of animated films. After graduating in Graphic Design in Ljubljana, Slovenia, she continued her studies at the Academy of Media Arts in Cologne, Germany. With the first two puppet films, Zasukanec (2004) and Lovesick (2007), animated and produced in Germany, she won several international awards in the category of student competition. Since 2008 Špela has been working as an independent director and producer. The third short film Boles (2013) has won 50 international awards and nominations. Špela's latest film in a cut-out technique Nočna ptica (2016) has already won numerous awards on the most important international animation festivals and we will have a privilege to screen it in Serbia for the first time!

Špela's emotionally involving films have the power of beautifully told stories filled with mixture of reality and fantasy. The convincing atmospheres from her films are the result of patiently crafted puppets and props put in extremely detailed settings with the right light effects, good timing and editing. Often shot in close-up, Špela's seducing, fragile and dreamy puppets enchant the audience with their big eyes, long slender fingers and sleepwalking moves. The author selects the topics close to her personal sensibility (love, creation process, loneliness, daydreaming) that evolve in a personal synthesis of formal elements and the narrative form. The success her films gained throughout the world has favored also the status of animation, an extremely lonely and marginalized art, in her native Slovenia.

When you listen or read her interviews, you realize that the key words this smiling animator uses when talking about her profession are: honesty, love for work, perseverance, good story, challenge. So, welcome to the honest(ly) animated world of Špela Čadež!

Andrijana Ružić

Na Salonu stripa publika će imati priliku da vidi sledeće animirane filmove Špeli Čadež: Zasukanec, 2004, 6:50' / Lovesick, 2007, 9:00' / Boles, 2013, 12:00' / Nočna ptica, 2016, 8:45'

At the Festival, the following films of Špela Čadež will be screened: Mate to Measure - 6:50 min / Lovesick (2007) - 9 min / Boles (2013) - 12 min / Nighthawk - 8:45 min

"Z KAO... ZAVIŠA, B KAO... BEKER"

DOKUMENTARNI FILM O ŽARKU BEKERU
(1936-2012, ZAGREB, HRVATSKA)

Autor filma: Veljko Krulčić; kamera: Robert Kalčić i Silvio Mirošničenko; montaža: Sara Gregorić; produkcija: udruža „Art 9“, Hrvatska, 2017; trajanje: 19 min.

Osim arhivskog materijala o Žarku Bekeru, istinskom klasičku hrvatskog i jugoslovenskog stripa, ovaj dokumentarac donosi i autentična svedočenja šesnaestorice njegovih kolega, prijatelja, članova porodice, kritičara i urednika: Borivoja Dovnikovića, Mladenca Bjažića, Zdravka Zupana, Žike Bogdanovića, Krešimira Žimonića, Pere Zlatara, Željimira Kosovića, Nine Kalaj, Željka Lordanića, Luke Marotija, Dušana Gačića, Ante Guge, Ede Dubravec, Tihomira Mraovića, te Žarkovih čerki Koraljke Beker i Janke Carev.

Dovniković u dokumentaru iznosi kako je Beker zapravo najbolji crtač njegove generacije; Žimoniću je Beker ljubav iz djetinjstva, čiji su stripovi doprineli da se zaljubi u strip; Zupan priznaje kako su mu njegovi stripovi kada je imao 12-13 godina više privjali nego Maurovićevi; Ante Gugo otkriva kako su Prce i Stameni pridoneli najvećem porastu tiraža političkog nedeljnjkika Fokus početkom 2000-ih; za Žiku Bogdanovića reč je i o izvanrednom crtaču i o veoma dobrom pripovedaču; Lordanić priznaje kako ga je Beker podsticao da crta stripove; dok se Bjažić seća kako je Bekerov talent otkrio s nepunih petnaest godina.

DOCUMENTARY ABOUT ŽARKO BEKER
(1936-2012, ZAGREB, CROATIA)

Author: Veljko Krulčić; camera: Robert Kalčić & Silvio Mirošničenko; editing: Sara Gregorić; production: Art 9, Croatia, 2017; length: 19 min.

Besides the archive material about Žarko Beker, the true classic of Croatian and Yugoslav comics, the documentary offers authentic testimonies of his sixteen colleagues, friends, members of the family, critics and editors: Borivoje Dovniković, Mladen Bjažić, Zdravko Zupan, Žika Bogdanović, Krešimir Žimonić, Pero Zlatar, Želimir Kosović, Nina Kallay, Željko Lordanić, Luka Marotti, Dušan Gačić, Ante Guga, Edda Dubravec, Tihomir Mraović and Žarko's daughters Koraljka Beker and Janka Carev.

In the documentary, Dovniković tells how Beker was the best artist of his generation; for Žimonić, Beker was the inspiration from the childhood, and his comics led him to the ninth art; Zupan admits that his comics were more appealing to him as a kid than those of Maurović; Ante Gugo reveals that Prce and Stameni were crucial for the rise of circulation of the political weekly Fokus in the beginning of the first decade of this century; for Žika

Bogdanović, he was a fantastic artist and exceptional storyteller; Lordanić admits that Beker urged him to begin to create comics; Bjažić recollects how he discovered Beker's talent in the teenage years.

JUBILEJI SRPSKOG STRIPA - ANNIVERSARIES OF SERBIAN COMICS SCENE

85 GODINA OD POKRETANJA ČASOPISA VESELI ČETVRTAK I POJAVE MIKIJA MAUSA U SRPSKOM STRIPU

Miki Maus je kao lik u crtani filmu nastao 1. novembra 1928. Filmovi sa njim (Plane Crazy, Trader Mickey) su ubrzo potom i s velikim uspehom prikazivani u srpskim bioskopima. Prvi novinski kaiš je u Sjedinjenim Američkim Državama imao premijeru 13. januara 1930. Zanimljivo, pošto je preko filmova stekao ogromnu popularnost, već 7. januara 1932. se Miki Maus i kao stripski lik našao štampan u tek osnovanom beogradskom časopisu Veseli četvrtak, ali ne kao original iz Diznijeov studija! Table (u novinskom koloru!) je stvarao srpski crtač ruskog porekla Ivan Šenšin, a tekst tih Avantura Mike Miša u stihovima ispod 624 takva crteža su pisali Božidar Kovačević i Svetislav B. Lazić. Osim njega, u časopisu koji su uredivali Jelena Zrnić i Grgur Kostić, objavljuvani su Bim i Bum pod imenima Tića i Mića, Macan Marko (Mačak Feliks), Čika Toša Oskara Jakobsona i drugi popularni stripovi toga doba.

85 YEARS SINCE THE LAUNCH OF VESELI ČETVRTAK MAGAZINE AND APPEARANCE OF MICKEY MOUSE IN SERBIAN COMICS

Mickey Mouse emerged as a character in the animated film on November 1, 1928. Shortly afterwards, these movies, such as Plane Crazy and Trader Mickey, were screened in Serbian cinema, and with the great success. First comic strip with Mickey was premiered in the USA on January 13, 1930 and less than two years later, on January 7, 1932, he appeared as a comics character in the newly established Belgrade based magazine Veseli Četvrtak ("Cheerful Thursday"). However, he did not appear in the original form of the Disney studio. The Serbian Adventures of Mickey Mouse (His name in Serbian was Mika Miš) were drawn by Ivan Šenšin, Serbian artist of Russian origin and the total of 624 cadres published in newspaper color, were scripted in verses by Božidar Kovačević and Svetislav B. Lazić. Besides Mickey, in Veseli Četvrtak, edited by Jelena Zrnić and Grgur Kostić, were also published Katzenjammer Kids, Felix the Cat, Oscar Jacobson's Adamson and other popular comics of the era.

80 GODINA OD POKRETANJA ČASOPISA VESELI ZABAVNIK

Časopis Veseli zabavnik pokrenut je 20. februara 1937. Njegov izdavač bio je Aleksandar J. Ivković, a urednik Milutin S. Ignjačević. U njemu su objavljivani Mačak Feliks, Tri ugursuza, Popaj, Beti Bup Maksa Flajšera, Stan i Olio, Šarlo. Takođe ovaj časopis je objavljivao i domaće autore i stripove, poput Kiće Đorda - Duke Jankovića. Ipak, većina njih je bila nepotpisana.

65 GODINA OD PONOVNOG POKRETANJA POLITIKINOG ZABAVNIKA

Prvi broj beogradskog časopisa Politikin zabavnik štampan je 28. februara 1939. Objavljan je dva puta nedeljno, utorkom i petkom. Do nacističke okupacije aprila 1941. objavljeno je 220 brojeva. Za vreme rata nije izlazio. Pred sam kraj 1951. godine tadašnji direktor Politike Vladislav Ribnikar okupio je nekoliko novinara i naložio im da ga ponovo pokrenu. Potpisani odgovorni urednik je bio Stojiljko Stojiljković, nepotpisani glavni, prema navodima Zdravka Zupana, bio je Kosta Stepanović. Novi Politikin zabavnik pod brojem 1 pušten je u prodaju 5. januara u istom velikom novinskom formatu i istoj tehnici štampe kao pre rata, ali je izlazio samo subotom. Imao je osam strana. Dominantno mesto zauzimali su Diznijevi stripovi. Od 6. januara 1968. godine Politikin zabavnik izlazi u njuzmagazinskoj konцепцији. Prvi urednik takvog revijalnog Zabavnika bio je Nikola Lekić, i sam stripski scenarista. Lekića je početkom sedamdesetih zamolio Živorad Stojanović. Sledili su: Rade Šoškić, Vlada Bulatović Vib, Darko Ribnikar i, već skoro tri decenije do danas, apsolutno najdugovečniji urednik Zefirino Grasi. Tokom krize devedesetih, kada su se ugasili gotovo svi stripski listovi, Politikin Zabavnik je bio jedino mesto gde su se u velikim tiražima redovno jednom nedeljno objavljivali inostrani komercijalni stripovi. Za skoro 80 godina postojanja verovatno da nema značajnijeg svetskog stripa ili autora koji tu nije štampan.

40 GODINA OD PRVIH IZLOŽBI STRIPA U SRBIJI (SKC BEOGRAD)

Prva izložba originalnih stripskih tabli uz štampani katalog najavljenja je još krajem 1969. godine u organizaciji beogradskog časopisa Politikin zabavnik i objavljena kao poziv na učestovanje početkom 1970. Planirani su komercijalni stripovi domaćih autora. No, požar koji je 30. marta 1970. gotovo sasvim uništio zgradu matičnog lista Politika razorio je dokumentaciju i redakciju Politikinog zabavnika i sprečio ovaj projekat. Tek posle sedam godina prva profesionalna izložba ove vrste organizovana je u zgradi Studentskog kulturnog centra februara 1977. godine pod naslovom Fantastika, strip, društvo. U obimnom katalogu na 36 stranica su štampane dve teorijske studije Ljubomira Kljakića i Jerka Denegrija, a izloženo je preko sto fotokopiranih tabli najpoznatijih

65 YEARS SINCE THE RELAUNCH OF POLITIKIN ZABAVNIK MAGAZINE

The first issue of Belgrade based magazine Politikin Zabavnik was printed on February 28, 1939. Initially it was published twice a week, on Tuesdays and Fridays. Until the Nazi occupation in April 1941, the total number of 220 issues was printed. During the war, the magazine ceased to exist and only at the end of 1951, the then director of Politika, Vladislav Ribnikar, gathered several journalists in order to relaunch it. The official editor-in-chief was Stojiljko Stojiljković, but, according to the testimony of the renowned comics historian Zdravko Zupan, unofficial and real editor of the magazine was Kosta Stepanović. New Politikin Zabavnik, bearing no. 1, was released on January 5, 1952 in the same format and printing technique as before the war, but it was published only on Saturdays, as a weekly. On its eight pages, the dominant place belonged to Disney comics. After January 6, 1968, Politikin Zabavnik started to appear in newsmagazine format. His editor at that time became Nikola Lekić, who was also a comics scriptwriter. He was replaced in the early seventies by Živorad Stojanović, who was in turn followed by Rade Šoškić, Vladimir Bulatović Vib, Darko Ribnikar and finally Zefirino Grasi, who is the longest running editor-in-chief of the magazine – for almost three decades. During the crisis of the nineties, when almost all other comics magazines in Serbia ceased to exist, Politikin Zabavnik was the only place where international commercial comics were still published on a regular basis, once a week. During the almost eighty years of its existence, probably there is not a single important worldwide comics, or the author, that was omitted on the pages of this magazine.

40 YEARS SINCE THE FIRST COMICS EXHIBITIONS IN SERBIA, SKC BELGRADE

First exhibition of original comics tables in Serbia, accompanied by a printed catalog, was announced at the end of 1969 by Belgrade based Politikin Zabavnik magazine. The call for participation appeared in the early 1970, and it was planned to include commercial comics of domestic authors. However, the original documentation and redaction of the magazine was destroyed in the fire accident, which on March 30, 1970, swept through the building of the Politika company. Thus, the project was canceled. It was only seven years later, in February 1977, that the first such exhibition took place in the building of the Student Cultural Center, Belgrade. Titled Fiction, Comics, Society, the exhibition was accompanied by 36 page voluminous catalog that included theoretical studies svetskih i originalnih crteža domaćih autora. U katalogu SKC-a su reproducovane table Rejmonda, Mekeja, Marvelovog Moćnog Tora, Barbarele, Valentine, kao i dela Mebijusa, Drijea, Kramba. Prikљučena izložba Studija za novi strip piscu Milenku Pajiću i slikaru Vladimira Dunjića u maju iste godine je preneta u Čačak u Dom kulture.

25 GODINA OD POKRETANJA STRIP MAGAZINA TRON

U vreme početka građanskog rata u Jugoslaviji, tokom decembra 1992. izdavač Orbis Aleksandra Dramićanina objavio je prvi broj strip magazina Tron. Glavni urednik je bio Dragan Savić. Štampan je u tiražu od 5.000 primeraka i prodavan je samo u knjižarama u Beogradu i Novom Sadu, ali ne i na kioscima. Juna 1995. godine je izdat poslednji, deveti broj Trona. Ovaj magazin je velik deo prostora ustupao novoj generaciji srpskih autora. Jedan od njih, Milan Jovanović, pokušao je da ga oživi kao časopis većeg formata Megatron, ali je posle nekoliko brojeva u drugoj polovini deve-desetih potpuno prestao da izlazi.

25 GODINA RADA ŠKOLE STRIPA I ILUSTRACIJE ĐORĐE LOBAČEV

Iako vanistitucionialno i u velikoj meri neformalno organizovana, neregistrovana kao pravno lice, bez stalnog sedišta (čeesto se premeštala iz različitih privatnih ili zakupljenih prostora: Doma kulture Braća Stamenović, hale Pionir, Doma Jugoslovenske vojske, SKC-a, Decijeg kulturnog centra, Senjaka...), bez objavljenog udžbenika, programa ili strategije, ovo beogradsko okupljalište u formi škole stripa i ilustracije je od samog početka of Ljubomir Kljakić and Jerko Denegri. The exhibition consisted of more than a hundred of photocopied tables, created by most renowned world artists, and the original tables of domestic ones. The catalog included reproduced tables of Raymond, McCay, Marvel's Mighty Tor, Barbarella, Valentina, but also the works of Moebius, Druillet and Crumb. In May of the same year, the exhibition was transferred to the House of Culture in Serbian city of Čačak, being simultaneously enriched by another exhibition – Study for a New Comic, edited by writer Milenko Pajić and painter Vladimir Dunjić.

25 YEARS SINCE THE LAUNCH OF THE COMICS MAGAZINE THRONE

At the beginning of the crisis in ex-Yugoslavia, in December 1992, Orbis publishing, owned by Aleksandar Dramićanin, published the first issue of the comics magazine Throne (In Serbian: Tron). Its editor-in-chief was Dragan Savić. The circulation was 5.000 copies, and the magazine was being sold only in the bookstores in Belgrade and Novi Sad, omitting newsstands altogether. In June 1995, ninth and last issue of Throne was published. The magazine dedicated most of its pages to the younger generation of Serbian artists. Milovan Jovanović, who was one of them, tried to revive it as a magazine in a larger format and under the name Megatrone. However, after several issues in the second half of the nineties it finally ceased to exist.

25 YEARS OF ĐORĐE LOBAČEV SCHOOL OF COMICS AND ILLUSTRATION

Although largely informally organized and outside the institutions, unregistered as a legal entity, without a permanent seat (often moving between various private owned or leased spaces, including the Brothers Stamenović Cultural Center, The Pioneers Hall, Student Cultural Center and Children Cultural Center), and without a published textbook, program or the strategy, this Belgrade based school of comics and illustration, led by an artist septembra 1992. godine do danas, na čelu sa Vladimirom – Vladom Vesovićem (Beograd, 1956), u Novom Sadu na Akademiji umetnosti diplomiranim grafičarom, pružalo prilično mlađim i starijim početnicima da se okupljaju, međusobno druže kao istomišljenici, razmenjuju informacije, izlažu, objavljaju, vežbaju i usavršavaju. Njena aktivanost je zasnovana na edukaciji, izlagачkom programu i stimulaciji najtalentovanijih polaznika. Od 1996. škola nosi ime čuvenog srpskog stripara Đorda Lobačeva (1909 - 2002). Kroz nju je za proteklih četvrt veka prošlo mnoštvo, i kod nas i u svetu afirmisanih, neretko vrhunskih srpskih stripara.

10 GODINA STRIP SERIJALA VEKOVNICI

Vekovnici je više puta nagradjivana avanturistička striparska serija scenariste Marka Stojanovića o dvojici slučajnih partnera, misterioznom vampiru Čenu i besmrtniku Kraljeviću Marku, koji u Evropi s kraja osamnaestog veka ukrštaju staze sa mitološkim bićima kao što su vampiri, psoglavi, todorci, ali i istorijskim ličnostima poput Mocarta, Milosa Obilića, Stevana Sindelića te književnim likovima kao što su Til Ojlenšpigel, doktor Faust, D'Artanjan, Frankenštajn i mnogi drugi. Serija je prvi put štampana 2007. na stranicama časopisa Politikin zabavnik, a nastavila da izlazi u albumima beogradskog izdavača System Comics (albumi "Rekvijem", "Pasji životi", "Prah", "Pepeo", "Bajka i druge istine", "Duhovi u boci" i "Čudovišta"). Od 2015. godine, takođe beogradski izdavač Darkwood postaje generalni distributer Vekovnica i Beskrnih, slične serije o vampirima, ali vremenski i prostorno u većoj meri lokalizovane. Scenarista je do sada saradivao sa približno 200 strip crtača i ilustratora iz Srbije, Hrvatske, Slovenije, Rumunije, Bosne i Hercegovine, Bugarske, Crne Gore, Makedonije, Grčke, Španije, Slovačke, Turske, Nemačke, Rusije i Brazilia.

Neka od najpoznatijih imena su: Rajko Milošević Gera, Igor Kordej, Darko Perović, Vladimir Krstić Laci, Dejan Nenadov, Branislav Kerac, Goran Sudžuka, Milorad Vicanović Maza, Lazo Sredanović, Dražen Kovačević, Dalibor Talajić, Milan Jovanović, Leonid Pilipović, Aleksandar Sotirovski, Mirko Čolak, Kristi Pakurariju, Aleksa Gajić, Bernard Kole, Kristos Stampulis, Petar Stanimirov, Iztok Sitar, Stevan Subić, Robert Bob Solanović, Svetlin Velinov, Adrian Barbu, Martin Plisko, Boris Talijančić, Toni Fejzula, Dan Ianos, Dmitri Narozny, Vamberto Nikomedes, Ajše Irem Aktaš, Mihajlo Dimitrijevski The Mičo i drugi.

Vladimir Vesović (Belgrade, 1956), who graduated from Graphics department at the Academy of Arts in Novi Sad, from its very beginnings up to this day provided the opportunity to the young and older beginners to gather, communicate with each other, exchange information, exhibit and publish their works, and to practice and improve their skills. The activities of the school are based on education, exhibition program and support to the most talented students. From 1996 onwards, the school bears the name of the famous Serbian comic artist Đorde Lobačev (Yuriy Lobachev, 1909-2002). Many of domestic artists, recognized at home and abroad, attended the school during the past quarter century.

10 YEARS OF THE COMICS SERIES VEKOVNICI

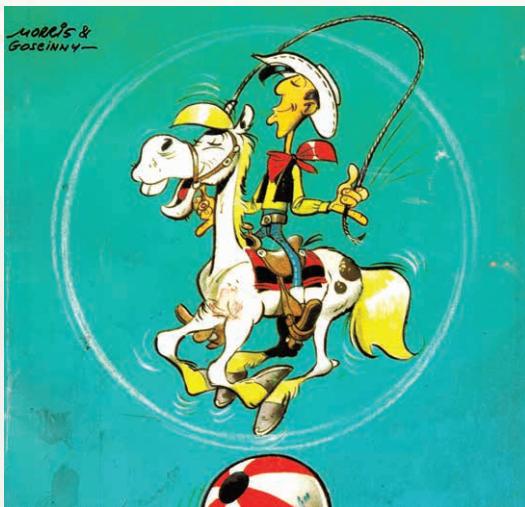

Vekovnici ("Eons") is an award-winning adventure comics series, scripted by Marko Stojanović. It revolves around two accidental partners, mysterious vampire Chen and immortal Prince Marko, who in the late eighteenth century Europe cross their paths with mythological creatures, such as vampires, dogheads and infernal horsemen, but also historical persons, including Mozart, Miloš Obilić, Stevan Sindelić, and literary characters, among them Till Eulenspiegel, Doctor Faustus, D'Artagnan, Frankenstein and many others. The series initially appeared in 2007, on the pages of Politikin Zabavnik, but continued its existence in the separate albums issued by Belgrade based publisher System Comics (the albums issued so far are: Rekvijem / "Requiem", Pasji životi / "Dog Lives", Prah / "Dust", Pepeo / "Ashes", Bajka i druge istine / "The Fairytale and the Other Truths", Duhovi u boci / "Ghosts in a Bottle" and Čudovišta / "Monsters"). In 2015 it was another publisher from Belgrade, Darkwood, who became the general distributor of Vekovnici and Beskrni ("Bloodless"), a similar series about vampires, but chronologically and spatially more localized. The scriptwriter collaborated on the series with almost 200 artists and illustrators from Serbia, Croatia, Slovenia, Romania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Montenegro, Macedonia, Greece, Spain, Slovakia, Turkey, Germany, Russia and Brazil.

Among these artists are RM Guéra, Igor Kordej, Darko Perović, Vladimir Krstić Laci, Dejan Nenadov, Branislav Kerac, Goran Sudžuka, Milorad Vicanović Maza, Lazo Sredanović, Dražen Kovačević, Dalibor Talajić, Milan Jovanović, Leonid Pilipović, Aleksandar Sotirovski, Mirko Čolak, Kristi Pakurariju, Aleksa Gajić, Bernard Kole, Kristos Stampulis, Petar Stanimirov, Iztok Sitar, Stevan Subić, Robert Bob Solanović, Svetlin Velinov, Adrian Barbu, Martin Plisko, Boris Talijančić, Toni Fejzula, Dan Ianos, Dmitri Narozny, Vamberto Nikomedes, Ayşe Irem Aktaş, and Mihajlo Dimitrijevski The Mičo.

ZORAN ĐUKANOVIĆ

„70 GODINA TALIČNOG TOMA – DVA GENIJA PRIPOVEDANJA, RENE GOŠINI I MORIS“, PREDAVANJE

Sva tri najvažnija strip-a za koje je scenario radio René Gošini – Asteriks, Iznogoud i Talični Tom – poseduju formalni okvir priča koji se iz epizode u epizodu ponavlja. Ono što se menja su maestralne varijacije unutar tako postavljenih okvira. U Taličnom Tomu Gošini i Moris pokazali su vrhunsko majstorstvo parafraziranja mitova o Divljem zapadu. Svojim postupkom, koliko god obesmišljavali zatečenu mitološku osnovu, oni isto toliko ironično dograđuju mitove. Kada se celovito iščitava korpus od četrdesetak albuma koji pripadaju zlatnom, zajedničkom periodu njihovog stvaralaštva, iznenaduje pažnja posvećena ispitivanju grupnog ponašanja ili, pojednostavljenje govoreći psihologije mase. Varijacije dogodovština sa gomilom predstavljuju skup dragocenih skica o autoritarnosti i moći. Kroz strip defiluje galerija poznatih istorijskih lica i kameo pojavitavanja slavnih glumaca u njihovoj parodijskoj stilizaciji.

“70 YEARS OF LUCKY LUKE – TWO STORYTELLING GENIUSES RENÉ GOSCINNY & MORRIS”, LECTURE

All of the three most important comics scripted by René Goscinny – Asterix, Iznogoud, and Lucky Luke, possess a formal framework, repeated throughout episodes. Changeable are the brilliant variations within the thus set framework. In the Lucky Luke, Goscinny and Morris showed superior mastery in paraphrasing myths of the Wild West. Through their creative work, although they rendered the mythological basis meaningless, they inasmuch ironically upgraded these myths. When the whole corpus of forty albums, belonging to the golden period of their collaboration is taken into account, it is particularly surprising how much attention was paid to the study of the group behavior or, in simpler terms, the psychology of the masses. Variations of the adventures with a bunch represent a collection of valuable sketches about authoritarianism and power. Throughout this series emerge a gallery of famous historical figures and parodically styled cameo appearance of famous actors.

LINIJE FRONTA - PRVI SVETSKI RAT 1914-1918 / KNJIGA PETA

(SYSTEM COMICS, BEOGRAD 2017),
PROMOCIJA STRIP ALBUMA

Izдавачка кућа System Comics nastavlja sa izdavanjem albuma u serijalu Linije fronta koji u sebi sadrže kratke priče prvenstveno domaćih, autora ali i mnogih zvučnih imena evropskog stripa, na temu Prvog svetskog rata.

Ovaj serijal započet je još 2014. godine u okviru Programa obeležavanja stogodišnjice Prvog svetskog rata 1914-2014. u Srbiji i Misije za obeležavanje stogodišnjice Prvog svetskog rata 1914-2014. u Francuskoj. Reč je o jednom od najvažnijih poduhvata u srpskom stripu u ovoj deceniji, čiji su prvi tom sa razlogom podržali Francuski institut u Beogradu i Ministarstvo kulture i informisanja Republike Srbije.

Strip serijal Linije fronta se tematski bavi životom na frontu i svakodnevnim životom ljudi tokom Velikog rata. Edicija ima umetničke, kulturne, obrazovne i diplomatske vrednosti, a već sada utiče na razvoj stripske umetnosti i popularne kulture.

U petoj knjizi serijala su pored autora iz Srbije i regiona, kao kuriozitet, zastupljena i četiri ruska autora: Askold Akišin, Aleksej Trošin, Varvara Pomodor i Eldar Karhaljov.

Album ima 80 strana a neki od autora čije su priče objavljene u ovom izdanju su: Dejan Stojiljković, Jovan Sekuloski, Milan Jovanović, Aleksandar Zolotić, Sladan Rankić, Nenad Cvitičanin, Darko Stojanović, Milenko Mišić, Nebojša Pejić, Nebojša Vasiljić, Danica Radović, Luka Cakić, Boban Savić – Geto i drugi.

FRONTLINES - THE WORLD WAR ONE 1914-1918 / BOOK FIVE

(SYSTEM COMICS BELGRADE, 2017),
LAUNCH OF THE COMICS ALBUM

System Comics Publishing continues the publication of the series Frontlines, consisting of short stories of primarily domestic authors, but also many renowned names from the European comics scene, related to the World War One.

The series began in 2014, as part of the Program of commemoration of one hundredth anniversary of World War One 1914-2014 in Serbia and Mission for commemoration of one hundredth anniversary of World War One 1914-2014 in France. It is one of the most important comics projects in Serbia in this decade, supported for a reason by the French Institute, Belgrade and Ministry of Culture and Information of the Republic of Serbia.

The Frontlines Series is dedicated to the life in the trenches and everyday life of ordinary people during the Great War. The edition has artistic, cultural, educational and diplomatic values, and its impact on the development of the Serbian comics and popular culture is already visible.

In the fifth book of the series, besides the authors from Serbia and the region, four Russian authors are also represented: Askold Akishin, Alexey Troshin, Barbara Pomodor and Eldar Karkhalev.

The album has 80 pages, and some of the authors whose stories are published in it include Dejan Stojiljković, Jovan Sekuloski, Milan Jovanović, Aleksandar Zolotić, Sladan Rankić, Nenad Cvitičanin, Darko Stojanović, Milenko Mišić, Nebojša Pejić, Nebojša Vasiljić, Danica Radović, Luka Cakić and Boban Savić – Geto.
